

Taft To Take Hand In Shaping Foreign Policy Of America

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), essaying a stronger role, has decided to take a place on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and an active hand in shaping foreign policy under the Eisenhower administration.

The Ohio senator, already serving as GOP floor leader, expects to give up his high rank on the tax-handling Senate Finance Committee to become fifth man in the Republican line on foreign relations.

Finances Linked To War
In that place, he will be in a position along with other committee members to get first-hand reports from John Foster Dulles, Eisenhower's secretary of state.

Appearing on an NBC television program yesterday, Taft said he wanted to switch from the finance committee to foreign relations because foreign affairs are affected by all but about 20 billion of the 78½ billion dollars President Truman has proposed to spend in the fiscal year starting July 1.

The solution to every domestic policy is linked to "the tremendous burden of the expenditure for war," Taft said.

He added that he believed he would be in a position to have some influence with those handling foreign policy in the GOP administration.

Have Same Objectives
Those who know him well say Taft took the floor leadership place primarily so he could sit in on the formation of the legislative program before it reaches the actual bill-drafting stage.

As a foreign relations member, he would have the same intimate knowledge of the formation of foreign policies which require implementation in Congress, as most of them now do.

The Ohio senator, who has opposed many of the Truman administration moves in the foreign field, insisted during the presidential campaign that he and President-elect Eisenhower have the same international objectives. He said any differences were those of methods and not of principle.

Taft may be accompanied to the foreign relations group by three other Republicans who share many of his views on foreign policy issues. They are Senators Langer of North Dakota, Ferguson of Michigan and Knowland of California. Knowland heads the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) will be chairman of the group. Holdover GOP members are Senators H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, Hickel of Iowa and Tobey of New Hampshire.

State Lawmakers Start Important Term Wednesday

By JACK I. GREEN
LANSING (AP) — Michigan's most important legislative session in 20 years will start Wednesday.

The 67th Legislature will assemble to face a deficit already passing $65,000,000 and rolling ominously toward $90,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year next June 30.

The decisions the lawmakers make could mean solidity or bankruptcy for the state's government, and virtually the same for thousands of local governments and school districts which have become dependent on the state's largesse.

Not since the dark days of the 1933 depression session has the Legislature faced such a vital meeting.

House Divided
Legislative leaders and observers agree this may be the stormiest session in the state's history. It faces no more serious problems than it did in those gloomy days of 1933 but it faces them this time a house divided against itself.

Twenty years ago a Democratic governor and a Democratic legislative majority tackled and licked a bankrupt State Treasury, a virtual cessation of Michigan banking operations, a wave of home foreclosures and business failures and a host of allied problems.

In 1933, the lawmakers face only state bankruptcy, but they

Japan Receives 68 U. S. Warships

TOKYO (AP) — The first of 68 U. S. Navy ships to be turned over to Japan will be transferred formally Wednesday at the U. S. naval base at Yokosuka near Tokyo.

The first group includes six frigates and four large landing ships. In all, the U. S. will lend Japan 18 frigates of the 1,300-ton class and 50 landing vessels of the 450-ton class. They will be loaned to Japan for five years without charge under an act passed by Congress last year.

The Japanese Maritime Safety Board has 46 ships, all but three of them 450 tons or less.

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, in a letter to U. S. authorities last April requesting the loan of ships, said 46 were not enough to guard Japan's 9,000 miles of coastline.

Eisenhower Meets With Cabinet For First Time

More Work And Fewer Hours, Aim Of Senate

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans for "fewer hours and more work" from the Senate are under study by the new Republican leadership.

One GOP senator, who asked that his name not be used, told a reporter today the proposed speedup includes these moves:

1. Trying to hold the usual daily Senate sessions to about five hours.
2. Giving committees more time to do their work by holding fewer daily sessions of the whole Senate.
3. Eliminating the custom of permitting any senator to force a quorum call, delaying action, when it is apparent that 49 or more senators, required to conduct business, are present.
4. Encouraging talkative senators to have their remarks printed in the Congressional Record instead of delivering them on the floor and forcing the Senate to stay in session.

This senator conceded that some of these goals—persuading senators to talk less, for example—may be difficult to achieve. In any event, he said, no test of the plan is likely to be tried until after the inauguration a week from tomorrow. Richard M. Nixon will then be vice president and presiding officer in the Senate.

Group Tackles Budget
For that matter, not much congressional work of any sort appeared likely to be undertaken before then. Both the House and the Senate still are involved in organizational details, mainly the formation of the legislative committees. Both are in recess until tomorrow.

In the House, Chairman Taber (R-NY) has said he hopes to have his appropriations committee set up and operating by the end of this week. That is the group which gets first crack at the $78,000,000 budget for the year starting July 1 which President Truman sent Congress Friday.

Waves Damage California City

REDONDO BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The mayor of this wave-battered community estimates damage from an angry sea at 15 million dollars and says he is asking Gov. Earl Warren to declare this a disaster area.

Dr. J. Russell Shea, the mayor, said more than 20 families are homeless.

The damage toll, he reported, includes destruction to private property, to streets and sidewalks undermined by waves, to light, power and gas installations and to the Redondo breakwater. The sea wall, torn in two places by raging combers, has been reinforced with more than $40,000 worth of rock.

The mayor said the damage is from the Saturday and Sunday pounding alone, when towering waves crashed onto ocean-front property along a four-block stretch. There was other damage from previous high waves.

Marines Investigate Jet Attack Mistake

TOKYO (AP) — The U. S. Marines today started their own "new and independent" investigation of a strafing and bombing attack that killed 14 American soldiers and nine on the Korean Central Front last week.

An Air Force statement Sunday indicated Panther jet planes of the type used by Navy and Marine pilots may have been responsible. It further reported Marine pilots were scheduled to attack the Reds north and east of the scene on the day of the mistaken attack.

A Marine spokesman in Tokyo said the Marine air wing in Korea sent its own investigators to the scene to question witnesses and inspect the damage.

"We're starting out from scratch," he said, "with a new and independent inquiry."

The Tokyo announcement was made after an Air Force and Army team surveyed the area, eight

Bald Head May Save Convicted Gun Killer From Electric Chair

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP) — Convicted slayer Carl Austin DeWolf is waiting today to die in the electric chair Jan. 27, but he hopes his bald head may yet save his life.

DeWolf, convicted of slaying a Tulsa detective in 1946 after a running gun battle, is light complexioned and bald, except for sideburns. New witnesses have testified the man they saw fleeing from the scene of the shooting had bushy hair and a dark complexion.

The conflicting testimony has prompted Gov. Johnston Murray to issue four stays of execution and has provoked an unprecedented review by the State Penal Institutions Committee, which convenes today.

Committee Chairman Sen. Kirksey Nix, a McAlester, Okla., criminal lawyer, says frankly he believes DeWolf has been railroaded. He said he has five new witnesses who will testify the slayer had bushy hair. He said if the committee believes, after the testimony, that DeWolf is not the murderer, it will ask the governor for a fifth stay of execution and start proceedings for a new trial.

Bomber Plunges In Virginia; 3 Die

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — An Air Force bomber, groping its way through fog and rain, plunged into a wooded area near this Central Virginia city yesterday.

Searchers found parts of bodies in the crash, indicating all three crewmen perished. Witnesses who saw the plane diving groundward said no one bailed out.

The plane, a B26 on a routine flight from Washington to Dallas, Tex., cracked up five minutes after radioing a civil aeronautics control tower that slabs of ice were forming on the wings.

The Air Force identified the crew as:

Capt. Charles S. Herring, 31, the pilot, Falls Church, Va.
S. Sgt. James R. Quaintance, 23, Washington and Reading, Pa.
Michael C. Jenkins, a Navy civilian employee, Indianhead, Md.

Grand Jury Inquiry Sought In Newberry Conservation Scandal

LANSING (AP) — A grand jury will look into charges that conservation officers in Luce county have used their official positions to engage illegally in lumber operations here.

Attorney-general Frank G. Millard called for the investigation last night. He said a petition for a grand jury inquiry will be filed next week at Newberry.

Millard said he is acting at the request of his assistant, Nicholas Olds, and State Police Det. Murray Young. He quoted them as saying both were having difficulty getting witnesses to talk.

He added that "Olds feels that there is enough smoke to indicate there must have been some crimes committed and that he has enough leads to go on if he can get testimony."

German Faster Claims Record

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A professional hunger artist, Willy Schmitz, claimed a new world record for fasting today after 79 days and 3 hours in a glass cage without food.

Police last night broke the seal on his cage while hundreds of spectators, who had paid 1 mark (23.8 cents) admission, watched. Doctors let Schmitz, thin and pale but smiling, sip a little champagne and fruit juice. Solid food will not be given him for several days.

The faster will enter a hospital, seeking to regain the 78 pounds he lost. A doctor said Schmitz was in surprisingly good health but that he probably would have died if he had tried existing three or four more days on nothing but water and cigarettes.

It was Schmitz' ninth long fast in 26 years. He said his next performance probably will be in North or South America.

"I won't fast in Germany any more," he explained, "because I can't make any money at it here."

Ten Pallbearers Carry 565-Pounder To Grave In 545-Pound Casket

RATIO, Ark. (AP) — Ten men will carry 565-pound Lugean Harris to his grave in a custom-built 545-pound coffin today.

Harris, 66, a Negro tenant farmer in this Mississippi River town, died of natural causes last Monday and funeral services have been postponed while a special casket was built.

J. W. Jordan, general manager for a funeral home said the coffin will be taken directly to the graveside for funeral services because it is too large to get through any church door here. It will be transported by truck because it won't fit into a hearse.

Harris is survived by his widow, two daughters and a brother. Jordan said one daughter weighs 300 pounds and the second 250. The brother weighs nearly 400 pounds. Mrs. Harris' weight was estimated at 150 pounds.

Karachi Police Arrest No. 1 Red

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — The pro-Red Urdu language newspaper Imroz reported today that Communist boss Aziz Ahmed Khan was caught over the week end in a police dragnet which followed four days of bloody rioting here.

Karachi police declined to deny or confirm the arrest of the local No. 1 Red.

However, City Chief Commissioner A. T. Naqvi earlier had blamed the Communists for spearheading last week's student disorders and said their leaders would be arrested.

Naqvi said 261 "bad characters" had been picked up after the riots, which started as a student demonstration against increased fees Wednesday and finally resulted in 12 deaths and injuries to 266 persons, including 152 policemen.

"Asked by reporters today for official confirmation of Khan's arrest, Naqvi said only:

"If he's a bad character, he's been arrested, and most Communists are bad characters."

Karachi was quiet today and business was normal. Only a few police patrols guarded the riot areas, but a curfew, imposed Friday, will continue in force from 5 p.m. to 7 a.m. tonight.

Reports Of Unrest Heard In Red China

By FRED HAMPSON
HONG KONG (AP) — Report of unrest in Communist South China trickle steadily out of the area.

Dispatches to Chinese newspapers here tell almost daily of guerrilla flare-ups, exile for thousands, executions of others.

While no serious challenge to Red rule appears to have developed, the reports indicate at least that opposition still dars to gather. Causes of the resistance are believed due to several factors.

Transfer of Red Army troops north to Korea left many South China areas in the hands of wavering militiamen.

Raiders Are Disturbing
Secondly, the Reds are attempting to finish land re-distribution in South China. That reform usually generates much resistance.

Thirdly, coverage has been generated among non-Communist elements by Chinese Nationalist raids from Formosa. Some of the more optimistic folks on the Red mainland seem to view these raids as evidence Chiang Kai-shek is coming back soon.

Other probable causes of unrest include the fall collection of grain taxes and heavy Red restrictions along the China coast, which include strict regulation of fishermen. The regulations are so harsh that several hundred fishermen have fled to Portuguese Macau and British Hong Kong.

Villages Revolt

Among guerrilla activities reported by the independent Wah Kiu Yat Po was the seizure of "Bamboo Patch Village" near Chungshan on Dec. 2 by villagers and defecting Reds. Some 300 Red soldiers later arrested 10 Communist workers, 50 villagers and 30

Senators Called In To Discuss GOP Patronage

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Eisenhower meets with his entire Cabinet today for the first time—and also tries at another conference with GOP Senate leaders to solve continuing difficulties over patronage.

The incoming Cabinet members and other key officials of the new administration were getting together with Eisenhower and Vice President-elect Nixon for a round of global and domestic policy discussions.

Problems Ironed Out
The sessions will continue tomorrow, when smaller units of the same group are scheduled to hold a series of separate conferences dealing with problems which will confront Eisenhower and his associates when they take office Jan. 20.

The President-elect arranged to confer in advance of today's Cabinet session with Senate Majority Leader Taft, Sen. Knowland of California, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee; and Sen. Millikin of Colorado, who heads the Conference of All GOP Senators.

Taft and another delegation of Senate leaders met Eisenhower two weeks ago to talk over patronage troubles—specifically, as the Ohio senator put it, complaints by some Republicans in Congress that the general wasn't consulting them in advance about job assignments in the new administration.

Too Much Confusion
After that meeting Taft said the delegation had reached a general understanding with Eisenhower that such assignments would be checked through customary senatorial channels.

Last week, however, the senators decided that things weren't going as they had expected. So they agreed.

Coke Promoter Taken By Death

ATLANTA (AP) — Asa Griggs Candler Jr., who helped his father fashion a multimillion-dollar Coca Cola empire, died yesterday at the age of 72.

His physician, Dr. Vernon Powell, said a malignant condition caused the financier's death yesterday after an illness of several months.

After making millions in Coca Cola, Candler went into real estate and at one time owned 33 apartment buildings and several hotels.

His father was a poor druggist who acquired the formula for Coca Cola at an Atlanta drugstore during the early part of the century. The younger Candler played a major role in extending the soft drink discovery into a business worth millions before it was sold by the family several years later.

Stonington Boy And Girl Believed Drowned In Bay

Icy waters of Little Bay de Noc are believed to have claimed the lives of a Stonington brother and sister who planned to return home by car over bay ice early Sunday morning, authorities said today.

John Kay, 23, and his sister, Norma, 11, have been missing since 1 a. m. Sunday when they left Nothing was found in the search of the bay area led this morning by officers of the sheriff's department and Michigan State Police. Another plane was to be sent out this afternoon to search the shore for traces of the automobile.

The home of a friend in Escanaba, Miss Nancy Olson, Escanaba, told officers that when Kay left after spending the evening here he said he planned to take "a short cut" over the ice from Gladstone to the Stonington Peninsula.

Search Continues Today
The crossing on the ice "bridge" between Gladstone and Squaw

Point on the Stonington shore is often driven during the winter months when the ice is solid. It saves about 15 miles of travel around the head of Little Bay de Noc.

Search began yesterday when Albert Kay, Stonington farmer, reported that his son and daughter had not arrived home.

Sheriff's officers and State Police of Gladstone, together with a group of volunteers, searched the shore line on each side of the bay in the area.

Fred Sensiba of Pioneer Aviation Corp., Escanaba, made flights yesterday and today in an effort to locate the car. There was open water and broken ice on the bay off Stonington shore following high winds over the weekend.

Roadway Was Marked
It was too dark last evening to determine definitely whether the smaller opening in the ice might have been made by an automobile, Sensiba said. He took off at 9:45 a. m. today for another flight over the area.

The crossing from Gladstone to the Stonington Peninsula is about one and one-quarter miles.

From Stonington it was reported that Thorsen brothers of Stonington, who are employed in Escanaba by the Harnischfeger Corporation, had marked the route across the ice on Saturday with tree branches.

During the winter months after the ice is solidly formed the roadway on the ice is plowed by the county.

John Kay's announced intention to take a "short cut" across the ice may have caused him to leave the marked trail, officers said.

Neighbors of the Kays said that John had driven across the ice to Gladstone in past winters.

There are three children in the Kay family: John and Norma, and Herman, who is serving with the U. S. Army. Another son, George, was killed in World War II.

Fisherman Escapes
The ice is yet unsafe for even experienced commercial fishermen, authorities pointed out.

Oscar Lundeen, 70, who lives near Ensign, was saved from drowning Friday when the snowmobile in which he was a passenger broke through the ice a mile off the Ogontz shore on Big Bay de Noc.

Oscar and Adolph Lundeen and Axel Thomas had gone out to set nets and the accident occurred when they were returning. Adolph was riding on a sleigh behind the snowmobile.

When the vehicle settled through the ice into nine feet of water Thomas got out but Oscar Lundeen was trapped. He floated up against the canvas top of the snowmobile and would have drowned had not his companions plunged into the water to rescue him.

High winds over the weekend moved much of the new ice out of Little and Big Bays de Noc, carrying fishermen's nets with it.

Stroke Fatal To Gustave Leaf

Gustave Leonard Leaf, 81, of 212 N. 11th St., a resident of Escanaba for over a half century, died at 5:50 a. m. Sunday at St. Francis Hospital. His death was caused by a stroke which he suffered the middle of the past week.

A retired carpenter and cabinet maker for the Chicago & North Western Railway, he came to Escanaba from Peshtigo, Wis., 51 years ago. He was born in Bohuslan, Sweden, Aug. 23, 1871.

He was prominent in Bethany Lutheran Church activities, a member of the building committee when the church was constructed, and a past deacon and trustee of the official board. He also was a member of the Lutheran Brotherhood of the church, and of the Carpenter's Union and the North Star Lodge.

Surviving are his wife and one daughter, Gertrude, Escanaba; and two brothers in Sweden.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Bethany Church with the Rev. Gustav Lund officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery. The body is at the Anderson Funeral Home where friends may call beginning at 2:30 p. m. today. The body will be taken from the funeral home to the church at noon Tuesday.

Ice Fishing Shanties Must Be Marked
Ice fishermen are warned that the law requires that owners of ice fishing shanties must have the owners names on the structures in letters not less than two inches high. Conservation officers are urging compliance with the law.

To prevent misunderstanding, officers point out that the 13 inch minimum size limit on walleyes applies to ice fishing as well as open water angling. The legal catch limit is 10 per day on walleyes taken from the Bays de Noc.

The diameter of Jupiter is 88,700 miles.

Three Injured In Weekend Accidents

GLADSTONE—Three persons were injured in two automobile accidents in Delta county over the weekend, State Police of the Gladstone detachment reported today.

Leonard J. Strohl, 19, and Lloyd 15, sons of Howard Strohl of Wisconsin, were injured early yesterday morning when the car in which they were riding ran off County Road 351 near the junction with US-2.

They were brought to St. Francis Hospital yesterday by their father for treatment.

Betty Reese Bergstrom, 19, of Marquette Rte. 11, suffered shock and bruises when the car she was driving skidded on M-35 six miles south of Perkins, hit the ditch and rolled over twice.

She smashed the windshield to get out then became unconscious. A passing motorist took her to a nearby farm where she was revived.

Detroit Brought Back From Miami On Charge Of Double Axe-Slaying

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Kenneth Lee Maurer is headed for Detroit to answer a double-murder charge in the axe-slaying of his mother and sister.

The 20-year-old, handcuffed to a Detroit police lieutenant boarded a Florida East Coast train here at 6:30 p. m. Sunday. He is due in Detroit Tuesday at 7 a. m.

Nina F. Ayers, a 28-year-old blond with whom Maurer had lived here as man and wife, bid him a tearful goodbye, vowing she'd come to Detroit to assist him any way she could. Maurer had lived here under the name of John Arthur Blotz.

The Rev. Carsten Ludder, a Lutheran minister, got Kenneth and Nina together. Lutherans in the trailer camp where Kenneth and Nina had lived interested him in the case. The woman had been in hiding since Maurer's arrest.

Police Lt. Gerald Walters and Detective Kenneth Perry are escorting Maurer to Detroit, where he is accused of hacking his mother, Mrs. Daisy Maurer, 44, and his 11-year-old sister, Janet, to death Nov. 26, 1951. He was apprehended at a workbench in a furniture plant by the FBI here Thursday.

Maurer has insisted that he can remember nothing of the day of the double-killing. He said he came to himself several days later in a Birmingham, Ala., bus station, realized he had "done something bad," although he didn't know what it was, and continued to Miami.

"He appears to be extremely remorseful and certainly is feeling bad about the whole thing," Walters said, adding that the officers expected to question the youth during the long train ride.

"I think," Walters said, "we'll get the story from him, but it's going to take a little time."

Maurer waived extradition to Detroit.

Ray LaPorte To Head Fair

The Upper Peninsula State Fair board of managers Sunday appointed Ray LaPorte of Escanaba as secretary-manager of the U. P. State Fair, succeeding John McInnis who resigned.

Attending the meeting here were Earl Allingham, Escanaba; N. J. Nicks, Munising; and Al Phillips, St. Ignace, the newly appointed member of the board. Victor Lemmer, Ironwood, and Ben Miller, Hancock, were unable to attend.

Plans for the annual meeting of the board to be held in Detroit next week were discussed. The board will meet in connection with the annual convention of the Michigan Association of Fairs.

The board adopted a resolution of commendation to Mr. McInnis for his work in developing the fair, as follows:

"Whereas, there has been tendered to the board of managers of the Upper Peninsula State Fair the resignation of its secretary, John McInnis, and

"Whereas, the said board of managers regretfully and reluctantly accepted said resignation,

"Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the board of managers assembled in meeting Jan. 10 incorporate into the minutes of said meeting this resolution commending John McInnis for his faithful service, both as secretary and as a member of the board of managers, and

"Be It Further Resolved, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to John McInnis and to the Hon. G. Mennen Williams, governor of the State of Michigan."

Delta Red Cross Plans Activities For Ensuing Year

The executive board of the Delta County Red Cross Chapter met Friday noon at the Sherman Hotel to discuss important business matters and to plan activities for the coming year. James Jackson, chairman of the executive committee, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Nyl Witham, executive secretary, and Gordon Jensen, fund drive chairman for 1953, also attended the meeting.

New committee appointments included Arne Maki, first vice-chairman, to succeed Captain Arthur Townsend, who is being transferred from this district in the near future, and Jesse Pomasel to the blood donor committee, to assist Tom Wilkinson, chairman of that committee.

The next meeting of the executive board will be held Wednesday, Jan. 14, at which time the 1953 budget will be drawn up.

The board of directors of the Red Cross met Wednesday evening at the Sherman Hotel, presided over by Capt. Townsend. Gordon Jensen gave a report on the tentative plans of the fund drive, and committee appointments were discussed. Twenty-nine members of the board attended the meeting.

Kingsford Chemical Co. Disowns Pommerening As Agent In Electric Deal

The offer of E. C. Pommerening, Milwaukee attorney, to sell the former Ford Motor Co. hydro-electric plant at Kingsford to the City of Escanaba for $1,650,000 was completely disowned over the weekend by the Kingsford Chemical Company, owner of the plant.

Owen Pyle, president of the Kingsford Chemical Co., Saturday in separate telephone conversations informed Mayor Robert LeMire of Escanaba and the Escanaba Daily Press that Mr. Pommerening is not an agent of the Kingsford Chemical Co., and is unauthorized to act for them in the sale of the property.

The telephone conversations were confirmed in the following letter from Mr. Pyle, addressed to K. L. Gunderman, editor of the Press:

"I wish to confirm my conversation with you today (Saturday) in which I told you that the news release in your paper of Jan. 9 concerning an offer of the hydro-electric plant owned by Kingsford Chemical Co. by a Mr. E. C. Pommerening did not present the true facts.

Not Authorized As Agent
"Kingsford Chemical Co., its officers and directors, did not offer its hydro electric plant for sale to the city of Escanaba and Mr. E. C. Pommerening is not our agent or never has been authorized to act for us in any matter.

"I am enclosing a copy of a wire I sent to Mr. Pommerening today; also a copy of a letter I have written to Mr. R. E. LeMire, mayor of the City of Escanaba."

The telegram addressed to E. C. Pommerening, 6585 Washington Circle, Milwaukee, follows:
"Press reports at Escanaba that you have offered that city proposals as to sale or lease of our power plant. You have no authority to represent this company or its management or its stockholders in any matter. This press story and offer have damaged us in a number of ways. We demand immediate message from you to city of Escanaba acknowledging your lack of authority and withdrawal of any proposal made by you as to our property. Please wire us at once what action you take."

The letter to Mayor LeMire was similar to that sent to the Escanaba Press, stating that Mr. Pommerening is not authorized to act as an agent of the Kingsford Chemical Co.

Pommerening Explains
City Manager A. V. Aronson is out of the city and will not be back at the city hall before Wednesday.

The Press contacted Mr. Pommerening in Milwaukee this morning and he readily conceded that he has not been authorized to act as an agent for the Kingsford Chemical Co. Pommerening also conceded that the Kingsford Chemical Co. is, in fact, the owner of the property.

"However, I believe that an opportunity does exist for the City of Escanaba to purchase the hydro-electric plant and that it is an opportunity that the city cannot afford to turn down," Pommerening said.

Will Not Withdraw
"I know that the plant is available and I feel reasonably sure that a majority of the stockholders will accept a reasonable offer from the City of Escanaba. In other words, I feel that the stockholders would approve a proposal such as I presented to the city officials of Escanaba."

"I have never professed to be the agent of the Kingsford Chemical Co.," he added.
Pommerening reported that he has no intention of complying with the demand of Mr. Pyle to withdraw his offer to the City of Escanaba. He said that he has stated his position in this matter at length in a letter to Mr. Pyle and that he will forward a copy of the letter to the Press.

Knutson Heads U. P. Foresters

The Upper Peninsula Chapter, Society of American Foresters, in meeting here Saturday elected Ray Knutson, Escanaba, connected with the U. S. Forest Service, president for the ensuing year.

About 60 foresters representing industries, state and federal agencies and Michigan College of Mining and Technology at Houghton, attended the meeting at the House of Ludington.

Other officers are W. W. Intermill, Houghton, forester for the Consolidated Water Power and Paper Company, vice president; and Robert Schmeling, Escanaba Paper Company forester, secretary-treasurer.

Roy Skaug, Marquette, Michigan State College extension forester, is the retiring president. Knutson had served as vice president last year. The Chapter, a division of the Wisconsin and Upper Michigan section of the Society of American Foresters, was formed a year ago.

During the morning session the foresters visited the Northwest Veneer Company plant at Gladstone.

The dinner program at the House of Ludington included talks by Charles Burton of Gladstone on "Michigan My Michigan", and by Richard Ewart, Cleveland Cliffs Company, Negaunee, on lumbering operations at Grand Island near Munising. The summer meeting will be held there, it was decided.

Kingsford Power Plant Offer Is Confusing To Escanabans

CONFUSION and cross-purposes that exploded negotiations for the sale of the Kingsford hydro-electric plant to the City of Escanaba more than a year ago have appeared again and it now seems unlikely that the proposal will reach the negotiation stage.

The Kingsford Chemical Company, through its president, Owen Pyle, has informed Mayor Robert LeMire of Escanaba and the Escanaba Daily Press that E. C. Pommerening of Milwaukee, who made the offer for the sale of the electric power plant to the City of Escanaba, is not empowered to act as an agent for the sale of the property. The inference is that the power plant is not available for purchase by the City of Escanaba.

This is the second time that this same situation has developed. In the previous occasion negotiations ceased with the purchase of the Ford property by the Kingsford Chemical Company and after Iron Mountain men who held a part ownership in the plant disowned the negotiations with the City of Escanaba.

For purposes of keeping the record straight and primarily to avoid unnecessary ill-feeling among our friends in the Iron Mountain-Kingsford area, it should be made clear that in both instances when there was any interest in Escanaba for the purchase of the Kingsford hydro-electric plant, the initiative in the proposal came from Mr. Pommerening who, in both instances, contended that he was acting as an agent for the owners.

The Kingsford Chemical Co. has demanded that Pommerening inform the city

MacInnis Retires As Fair Official

JOHN MacInnis, who resigned Saturday as secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula State Fair, will long be remembered by supporters of the fair at Escanaba as a man who has made a tremendous contribution to the development of the exposition.

MacInnis completed 14 years as a member of the board of managers, years in which the U. P. State Fair has shown its greatest growth. The last two years he served not only as a member of the board of managers but also as secretary-manager. He was thoroughly familiar with the viewpoint of the fair as he was the operator of a feed and grain business in Rudyard for many years. That knowledge was valuable to him in his work with the fair because the exposition is primarily an agricultural fair.

The decision to resign from his position as manager was not wholly unexpected. MacInnis, a Republican, was appointed to the board of managers by a Republican governor and he was subsequently reappointed to additional terms by Republican governors. His last term of office as a member of the board expired in June and the appointment of a Democratic successor, Alexander Phillips, of St. Ignace, was announced Friday by Gov. Williams.

Mr. MacInnis has made numerous friends in Escanaba and, of course, throughout the Upper Peninsula in the years in which he has been associated with the Upper Peninsula State Fair.

The Doctor Says... Average Diet Has Sufficient Vitamins for Needs of Body

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Vitamins have been recognized for about 50 years. They may be considered as substances of varying chemical nature and differing actions on the body which are required in the diet in addition to minerals, fats, proteins and starches.

There are, as most people are aware, a good many different kinds of vitamins, but for some reason or other it is not so commonly realized that most vitamins are present in the average diet in sufficient amounts for the needs of the body.

There are exceptions to this, it is true, and complete absence of certain vitamins in the diet will produce definite deficiency diseases with such names as beriberi, pellagra, rickets and scurvy.

It is also true that there are less definite illnesses which are caused by insufficient quantities of one vitamin or of several, and which interfere with health in a less clear-cut way than diseases such as those mentioned.

Millions of words have been written about the vitamins, and indeed the growth of knowledge about these "accessory food factors" and the part which they play in various functions of the body is one of the most remarkable developments of the past half-century.

The discussion of vitamins started out by a lettering system, so that the vitamin of Escanaba that he lacks authority to negotiate a sale of the hydro-electric plant and further to withdraw any proposal already made.

Thus, it would seem that if the Kingsford Chemical Company is, in fact, the owner of the property, Escanaba can forget about the old Ford power plant as a potential solution to our electric shortage problem.

Kissing Games Teacher Is Fired

THE Maryland school teacher who introduced kissing games as a part of the school curriculum in his classes of 12 and 13-year-old children apparently needs psychiatric treatment. Or, as the "teenagers" say it, he must have rocks in his head.

Needless to say, the school authorities gave the teacher, one Louis L. Pund Jr., the quick heave-ho when it came to their attention that the teacher has installed a game of postoffice in his classes.

Pund's excuse for his action is that he wanted to break down the youngsters' inhibitions because he felt they were too shy. Bosh! Of course children 12 and 13 years old are shy in their relationships with the opposite sex. That's not anything new. That's characteristic of just about all the 12 and 13 year-olds that we have ever known. The inhibition, if you want to call it that, break down very naturally at an age level of about 15-16. And it doesn't take a school room kissing game to reach this pattern.

The school teacher deserved the bounce that his superiors ordered when they discovered what he was doing. He deserved it not only because he installed the game of postoffice for his young charges but also because he proved beyond any doubt that he is wholly unfamiliar with the natural inclinations and disinclinations of youngsters ages 12 and 13.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROBES AT MADISON

(Green Bay Press Gazette)

We don't recall a governor who has conducted his budget hearings more aptly than has Governor Walter Kohler lately. On successive days of interrogation of the numerous state operating department heads, he has produced more interesting stories for Wisconsin taxpayers about the uses to which their state tax dollars are put than the best and most enterprising of the professional reporters at the state-house.

Governor Kohler has shown that to some degree the state government has watered its appropriations during the easy money days of the last decade. We deduce from his repeated comments that he is resolved to wring some of that water out of the state budget that now exceeds a quarter of a billion dollars.

There has been noticeable in these capital finance deliberations a sophisticated habit of breaking down the multi-million dollar spending figures into per capita cost equivalents. This big item really amounts to the price of a bag of popcorn for each inhabitant of the state, and that one represents only a few cents for the millions of people who benefit from it, the argument goes.

The device is clever, it may be admitted, from the viewpoint of the astute political practitioner. But to the responsible political leader and the observant citizen it is irrelevant and often very deceptive. Even a dollar in the per capita equivalent of a needless appropriation means 3.5 million dollars in the budget. It is these dollars and even the dimes in similar examples, that are so casually regarded by some of our public men that pile up, however, into the staggering total.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Italian and Allied authorities now believe they have pieced together part of the amazing facts by which Soviet agents enticed the nuclear physicist Bruno Pontecorvo behind the iron curtain, inveigled the two British diplomats, Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean, away from London, and kidnapped Noel Field, the former State Department employee.

All these weird incidents, they believe, go back to one man—the top Soviet agent in Western Europe. His best-known name is "H. Karl," though he has many assumed names, travels alternatively on four different passports, speaks six languages, and is the most accomplished spy in Europe today.

Karl is supposed to have been born in Austria, and began his espionage work with the Nazis. He worked with Admiral Canaris' Nazi spy group in the Middle East and is reported to have been the man who planted the Albanian valet on the British ambassador in Istanbul, thereby permitting Hitler to obtain the British secret code and some of the Allies' top war secrets.

Early in 1944, Karl was either captured by the Russians or decided to switch his allegiance. At any rate he has been one of Russia's top agents ever since.

Karl was in Prague when Noel Field was kidnapped and also was believed to have been instrumental in enticing other members of the Field family behind the iron curtain on the guise of rescuing him.

PONTECORVO'S ESCAPE

Allied authorities give Karl almost sole credit for the amazing job of sneaking the British scientist, Pontecorvo, with his precious secrets of the hydrogen bomb, out of England and behind the iron curtain. They believe Karl had earlier contacts with Pontecorvo in England, then arranged to meet him when the scientist went to Milan, Italy, on vacation.

From there, Pontecorvo and his entire family flew to Stockholm, then to Helsinki, where a Red Army plane was waiting to take them to Russia.

Unlike the two British diplomats who left their families behind, and Field, whose family had to be enticed behind the iron curtain after he was kidnapped, Pontecorvo took his with him. Thus it appeared that he took the trip deliberately and with the idea of financial reward in Russia. He could have appealed to the Italian police in Milan had he not wanted to leave.

British Diplomats Burgess and MacLean are believed to have been lured to a point near Udine, Italy, through a combination of blackmail and bribery. Their known perversion background lent itself to this. From Udine they are reported to have been flown in a private plane, without customs clearance, to Red territory in Austria.

Karl, the Soviet master-mind behind most of these abductions, is described as 50 years old, 5 feet 9 inches tall; weighing 170 pounds; fair hair, balding, gray at temples; yellowish complexion; blue-gray eyes with tendency to squint; slit-line mouth, thin lips, rounding him; uses pince-nez or heavy tortoise-shell glasses to vary his appearance.

His chief identifying mark is a drooping underlip from an old scar, which is partly obscured by a full blonde-gray mustache.

ROOTIN'-TOOTIN' RANKIN

Ohio's fat, jolly Congressman Clarence Brown, Republican, was plodding down a Capitol corridor the other day, when he spotted Mississippi's forlorn lame-duck Congressman John Rankin.

Rankin, one of the worst rabble-rousers in Congress, was long famous for his attacks on minority groups, especially the Jews. He even dug up a West Point yearbook from which he deduced that Eisenhower was Jewish.

Now that he is defeated, Rankin is so loath to leave Congress that he has delayed packing, says he can't leave his office until February. Knowing this background, Brown spoke soothingly to the Mississippi.

"We're going to remember our Republican friends in the South when it comes to handing out the jobs," said Brown with a perfectly straight face. "In fact, I've been asked to recommend some good Southerners for jobs and your name is on the list. I'm recommending you to be Ambassador to Israel."

Inauguration Ride:

For One Man, Exhilaration; For The Other A Humiliating Journey

By DOUGLAS LARSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—For one man it will be an exhilarating ride of fleeting moments, the final ritual before being officially designated the most influential man on the face of the globe.

For his companion on that journey, at best, it will be a deflating, unpleasant experience, and perhaps the most humiliating, bitter 20-minute ride of his life.

But no one can guess the emotions and thoughts of incoming President Eisenhower and outgoing President Truman as they make the traditional ride together along Pennsylvania Avenue from the White House to the Capitol for the swearing-in ceremony.

It will be the 15th time in U. S. history that one party, on the mandate of the electorate, relinquishes control of the federal government to the other party.

However, if there is bitterness in the hearts of either man during that ride, for things said during a bitter campaign or since, it will not be new.

In 1801 Republican Thomas Jefferson took over the reins of government from the outraged and defeated Federalist, John Adams. A terrible row developed over the appointment of new officials and the firing of some of the relatives of Adams and his wife who had been put on the U. S. payroll. These disputes engendered as much heat as did the issues of the campaign.

As a last gesture of ill-will, Adams made several "midnight" appointments, which Jefferson later refused to recognize. Out of this dispute came the first instance of the Supreme Court assuming authority to declare laws unconstitutional.

While the whole struggle was being thrashed out, Jefferson dared to visit Adams to try to talk things over, only to be met with the angry charge by Adams: "You have turned me out; you have turned me out."

In a state of high agitation Adams slipped out of town to avoid the inauguration.

Twenty-five years later when the next party exchange took place, it was a hurt, saddened Andrew Jackson who succeeded a gloomy John Quincy Adams. The death of Jackson's wife after the election was the cause of his grief, made all the more bitter by his belief that Adams had been a partner in some slanderous attacks on her during a previous campaign.

When the unhappy Jackson arrived in Washington for the inauguration Adams sent him a message offering to vacate the President's house early for Jackson's convenience. Jackson didn't even reply.

Adams' cabinet advised him to have nothing to do with the inauguration ceremonies. The day before the event, Adams wrote, "I left the President's house, and, with my son John and T. B. Adams, Jr., came out and joined my family at Meridian Hill."

As they continued from there to their suburban house, according to historian Marquis de Lafayette: "The President of the United States followed on foot, alone, unrecognized and tortured by bitter reflections."

The participants in succeeding inaugurations played their roles in better grace until the fateful March 4, 1861, when Abraham Lincoln took his oath of office. A sense of impending doom was more the keynote than bitterness. Outgoing President James Buchanan had been unable to halt the decay of relations between the North and South.

When Lincoln took his oath on the Capitol plaza he was probably a little sick inside, sensing the LAST POLITICAL CHANGE-OVER of Presidents put Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt side-by-side in the ride down Pennsylvania Avenue. They spoke scarcely a word during trip.

SKATES FOR EVERYBODY — There must be a lot of good skaters in Escanaba, says Duncan Cameron, Escanaba Daily Press circulation manager.

The father of four children, Cameron wanted to buy a pair of used skates so that he could go out with his youngsters to the rinks. He placed an advertisement in the Press, received an answer, and strated out to make the purchase.

He became mixed up on the address, however, and called at two places. Both parties had skates for sale—girl's figure skates. By the time he found the house he was looking for (the one with men's skates) the folks had gone out.

The incident is related only to show that Escanaba, producer of the "Biggest Small Town Ice Revue in the World", probably has thousands of pairs of outgrown skates tucked away in family attics.

Recognizing this, the Recreation Department is conducting a skate exchange at Club 314, where you can take your skates that don't fit and exchange them for skates that do. Skate exchange hours are from 1 to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

APPRECIATION — Indian Lake State Park Manager Victor J. Haas feels he gets his share of troubles now and then, reports the Conservation Department. Part of his activity report to the Department last week read as follows:

"Work crew still hauling sand. Tuesday one wheel broke off the truck. They changed this and continued hauling the rest of the week, but on the last load, the tractor broke down.

"Friday night I returned home from my annual vacation in the south. My wife with a cold, daughter with chicken pox, son with an ear infection and I lost the Civil War.

"If you seek a beautiful peninsula—don't leave Michigan!"

MEETING THE NEED—Mrs. Levi Pienau of Rapid River Rte. 1 believes that she can solve the problem of what to do with those stacks of Christmas cards.

Use them for scrap paper. They come in handy to do ciphering on when figuring your income tax!

"My boy uses them in his home work. Other suggestions: Use the blank side for practice typing (for students who have a typewriter at home) and save on good paper.

"They make good drawing paper for those who have small children in the house and the children like them to make cut-outs. It keeps them occupied for many happy hours."

She adds: "Perhaps the children in St. Francis Hospital or in St. Luke's at Marquette would enjoy having them."

SAVE THE STAMPS—Francis L. Clish of 615 Park Ave., Manistique, has this to offer concerning the use for Christmas cards: Save the stamps and mail them to him.

"I collect these cancelled postage stamps from all my neighbors and friends and send them to missions. Here is all that must be done:

"Tear out the cancelled stamps, leaving a border of paper one-quarter inch at least. If the stamp is pasted far up on the envelope the flap of the envelope will allow for the necessary border at the top.

"I would appreciate it if the many good people who have been burning these stamps would send them to me. I receive no personal gain by making the collection, but the missionaries are helped greatly."

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

Many expressions spring to our lips so readily that we fail to think that they once had literal meanings. Thus, in an argument, if one man says something that has little bearing on the subject, the other may say, "Yes, but that is beside the mark," or perhaps, is far from the mark, or misses the mark, or falls short of the mark. The saying takes us back to the days of Robin Hood and to even more remote times, to any period when the practice of archery was a grim necessity if men would eat and win battles.

The "mark" in that old saying was the target or butt to be aimed at in practice. It was the arrow, in such trials, which either hit the mark, or passed beside it, or flew far from it, missed it, or fell short of it. But this saying, both literal and figurative, can be traced also to the arenas of ancient Greece, where "ex agone," off the mark, meant a miss to the archers, and was used by others as we use "beside the mark" today.

And today, somewhat slangily, we speak of a complete meal, a banquet, or dinner served at considerable length, as extending "from soup to nuts." But among wealthy Romans of old there was also a regular procedure for the serving of a fashionable meal. It ran "ab ovo usque ad mala," from eggs to apples. And they used this expression at any time to mean "from beginning to end," just as we use "from soup to nuts."

The annual cost of crime runs into billions, and judging from the latest police figures, we're really getting our money's worth.

Betty Westerberg Is The Bride Of Robert Lundgaard

A gown of billowing white nylon tulle and French Chantilly lace was worn by Miss Betty Jane Westerberg for her marriage Saturday afternoon to Robert Earl Lundgaard of Cornell. Betty Jane is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Westerberg of 1314 North 18th St., Escanaba. Mr. and Mrs. August A. Lundgaard of Cornell are the bridegroom's parents.

The lace jacket bodice of the bridal gown had long tapered sleeves, an illusion neckline and back fastening. A peplum of lace extending over the skirt suggested the new elongated waistline. The skirt was formed of yards and yards of gathered nylon tulle over satin. The bride's headpiece was of matching Chantilly lace, a small cap with seed pearl trim and tiny rosebuds of lace fitted over the ears. Her fingertip veil was French illusion. She wore a double strand of pearls, the bridegroom's gift, as her jewelry, and she carried a colonial bouquet of Briarcliff roses and white pom-poms with a white satin bow and streamers.

Aides' Gowns Identified

Her sisters, who attended her, wore identical dresses of satin and nylon net. The bouffant skirts had three tiers of net and the strapless bodices of satin were fitted with net detailing at the top. Satin jackets with small mandarin necklines and cap sleeves covered the shoulders. Their headpieces of braided net matched their gowns. White mitts completed their ensembles. Miss Carol Westerberg, the maid of honor, wore pale green and carried a colonial bouquet of Talisman roses. Mrs. Roy Olson, the bridesmaid, was in pale coral and her flowers were a colonial bouquet of Briarcliff roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony at 2 solemnized by the Rev. Gustav Lund at Bethany Lutheran church.

Mr. Lundgaard was attended by his brother, Fred, as best man. Ushers were Russell Backlund and Wallace Ray.

Reception at Dells

Mrs. Westerberg attended her daughter's wedding in a black crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of Briarcliff roses. Mrs. Lundgaard wore sapphire blue crepe with matching accessories. Talisman roses formed her corsage.

Pink roses and white standards with white baby mums adorned the church altar for the service. Don Aronson played a prelude of wedding music as the guests were assembling and the traditional processional, Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and the Mendelssohn Wedding March. Five Alfred Gossan, soloist, sang "Because" and "O Promise Me" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as they knelt at the altar.

The reception for 300 guests was held at the Dells from 3 to 5 with the four-tiered wedding cake centering the arrangement of flowers and tapers. Pouring were Mrs. Russell Backlund and Miss Barbara Klasell.

Home In Cornell

When the couple left on their honeymoon trip, the bride was wearing a gold knit suit with brown accessories, a beige coat with matching stole, and a corsage of Talisman roses. They will live in Cornell.

The bride attended Escanaba Senior High School and Cloverland Commercial College and for the past year and a half has been payroll clerk for the Birds Eye Veneer Co. Mr. Lundgaard who attended Escanaba High School and St. John's Military Academy is employed by his father.

The wedding guests included Miss Barbara Klasell of Winnebago, Wis. Miss Patricia Buzzell of Marquette, Wilbert Westerberg of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Gochbauer of Appleton, Wis.

Woman's Behavior Injures Both Herself An Her Child

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

There is no question that a woman must watch her reputation. It is one of the easiest things she can ruin. That is why this woman should take care at once:

(Q) "I have a friend who has a good background. However, she has been married and divorced twice. She has a 7-year-old child, but she doesn't seem to be interested in anything the child does. My friend is a sweet, easy-going person who falls in with the wrong sort of people. Now she is associating with an undesirable woman who is at least 10 years older than she. They like to go to other towns for fun. I am uneasy about my friend because I am afraid that she will ruin her reputation if she continues to do this. What can I do to help my friend so that her child will be proud of her when she grows up instead of ashamed of her mother?"

(A) Your friend may merely be in search of excitement and innocent fun but few people will believe this. She already has the stigma of two divorces and people are likely to believe the worst.

If you are true friends, she may be willing to listen to you and take your advice. Or she may be so dominated by this other woman that she would resent your frankness. That is a chance you must take if you decide to talk to her.

Two things might drive home to her the serious nature of her present behavior. First, the child's father will hear about her behavior and will report to the court that she is unfit to be the child's guardian. Even though she pays little attention to the child, the possibility of losing her may be a strong incentive to mending her ways.

Secondly the parents of the child's friends may hear of the mother's actions and will refuse to allow their children to associate with the little girl. No mother, no matter how easy-going she is, will stand by silently and allow her child to be snubbed by other children.

Fishermen Can't Litter The Ice

Conditions about fish shanties out on the ice must be kept ship shape and no longer can the fishermen toss their empty beer cans out on the ice and leave them, or clean fish and leave the offal.

Attention to a new law which is to be enforced is brought by Conservation Officer Glenn Price. It relates to anything which may "cause any unsightly or unsanitary condition, with in or upon said waters, or on the shoreline adjacent thereto."

Officer Price also pointed out that every shanty must have the name and address of the owner in legible letters not less than two inches in height affixed on the outside of the fish shanty so as to be readily seen and of a material not soluble in water.

The wording of the regulation pertaining to leaving rubbish on the ice about a fish shanty is as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to put into the waters under the jurisdiction of this state, or on the ice covering said waters, any offal, blood, putrid brine, putrid fish or filth of any description that will tend to stupefy, injure or kill any fish or to throw or deposit, or permit to be deposited in any of the waters under the jurisdiction of this state or on the ice covering said waters, any glass, cans or bottles, any metal objects, rubbish, garbage, or any other substance likely to injure any person, fish, bird or animal, or to cause any unsightly or unsanitary condition, either in or upon said waters, or on the shoreline adjacent thereto."

Detroit Held In Twin Killing

MIAMI (AP)—Removal of mid-mannered, 20-year-old Kenneth Maurer to Michigan to face charges of murdering his mother and 11-year-old sister awaited only the arrival of formal warrants from Detroit today.

Maurer, nabbed by the FBI here Thursday after a 14-month search, waived extradition to Detroit at a hearing yesterday before a U. S. Commissioner. Bond was fixed at $10,000, which the youth couldn't make.

Mrs. Daisy Maurer, 44, and her daughter, Janet, were found hacked to death with a Boy Scout axe and hunting knife in their Detroit home Nov. 26, 1951.

Kenneth told newsmen and officers here that he could remember nothing of what happened Nov. 26, 1951, but said he realized he had "done something bad" when he "came to my senses" in a Birmingham, Ala., bus station several days later. He claimed he didn't know he was wanted for killing his mother and sister until he heard a crime program describing the deaths on the radio a week ago.

He was arrested at a bench in a furniture plant here and said he had been in the Miami area for more than a year.

Pope Relaxes Rules Of Church To Meet With Modern Needs

By FRANK BRUTTO

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius has directed that conditions for receiving Communion and celebrating Mass in the Roman Catholic Church may be relaxed where necessary to meet the needs of modern life.

He issued a new "apostolic constitution" permitting bishops to authorize afternoon mass after four o'clock to accommodate workers who otherwise might not be able to get to church.

Midnight Ban Eased
He ruled also that the taking of plain water no longer constitutes a breaking of the fast before communion, and that in certain circumstances some nourishment, not including alcoholic liquids, may be taken up to an hour before communion. Until now Catholics have been obliged to abstain from both food and water from midnight until receiving the Sacrament at Communion.

The Pope declared, however, that persons who are not greatly inconvenienced should continue to follow all the old prescriptions of the church for receiving Communion.

A vatican press office summary said the Pontiff was moved to alter the conditions of the ancient ritual of Communion because of difficulties in mission lands and in countries where the church is being persecuted, and because of changes in modern life particularly among night workers, mothers and school children.

May Take Nourishment

A specially prepared instruction from the Supreme Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office—one of the Vatican's 12 bodies governing church matters—prescribed several points about the new apostolic constitution.

The first said those not situated in particular conditions must continue to observe the eucharistic fast from midnight, as heretofore, with the exception that plain water may be taken.

The second said the sick, either priests or people, even if not confined to bed, may take something in the form of liquid or true medicine, excluding alcoholic drinks.

Persons who are not sick, but who because of serious inconvenience might not be able to receive Communion, may, with the advice of their confessor, take some liquid nourishment, excluding alcohol.

Examples of such inconvenience include exhausting labor, the late hour in which Communion is received, or the long journey at least 1 1/4 miles on foot to church.

No Hard Liquors

The Pope's liberalization of the hour when Mass may be celebrated extended a privilege that already had been given in some areas of France.

Priests who celebrate and the faithful who attend an evening Mass and receive Communion may — with the meal permitted until three hours before the beginning of the Mass or the Communion—take in moderation the alcoholic drinks which customarily are taken during meals wine or beer for example, but not hard liquors.

The Pope's new regulation was dated Jan. 6, the day of the Feast of the Epiphany, and went into effect Saturday.

Trojans Rally, Top Norway Vikes 64-54

St. Joe's two-platoon cage squad showed to good advantage in a come-from-behind 64-54 victory over the Norway Vikings before a capacity crowd at Bonifas gym Saturday night.

Coach Tom St. Germain's starting five had trouble with Norway's zone defense and found the Vikings tough under the boards. Norway scored first, fought off a mid-period rally and spurred to take a 17-11 lead at the end of the frame.

Norway continued to control the rebounds early in the second period and maintained its margin until the four-minute mark. The Trojans were getting only one shot at the basket and most of their field goal attempts were from a considerable distance.

Bryson Stars

The tide changed swiftly, however, when lanky Dick Bryson moved into the pivot slot for St. Joe. With Bryson going high for the ball under the nets, the Trojans moved their offense into scoring range and began whittling on the Norway lead.

With three minutes remaining to halftime, guard Bill Maycunich potted a field goal to narrow the gap to 24-23. John Martinac dropped two free throws to put St. Joe ahead 25-24.

Although Norway regained the lead momentarily a few seconds later, the pattern of play was already set for the remainder of the game. Bryson slapped in seven points in the second period and when the teams took their half-time rest St. Joe had a 30-28 lead.

Sink Vikings

Bryson and John Martinac ruined Norway's chances in the early minutes of the third period. Martinac scored from the field, Bryson tipped in a rebound and dropped a free throw and Martinac sank another set-shot to boost St. Joe to 37 points before Norway could score in the third period.

And Martinac, Bryson and Dave Hirm connected on field goals before Norway could score again, giving St. Joe a 43-29 margin halfway through the third period.

From there on out the Trojans were in command. Bryson and Gravelle handled the rebound chores in good fashion, Bob Sendenburgh set up the offensive play and both Jerry McDonough and Dan Marsieck contributed to the scoring column in the second half. Of these five players, only Martinac, Sendenburgh and Gravelle were among the starting five. Ten Trojans saw action in the game and nine scored.

It was the seventh victory against one defeat in season's play for St. Joe. The Trojans return to

Few Grid Rule Changes Seen

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association started its annual conference today, with prospects of making few if any important changes in the present regulations.

Most of the 11 members seemed satisfied with the way college football was played last season.

An advisory committee of college coaches headed by Columbia's Lou Little has submitted a number of proposals, including one intended to discourage the so-called "Sucker Shift," a maneuver to draw the enemy offense.

The coaches asked the rules committee to make it illegal for a lineman to change position after assuming his stance in the line with one or both hands on the ground.

The coaches also are recommending that T quarterbacks be made eligible to receive a forward pass after handling the ball from center and that the old fair catch signal—one outstretched arm—be restored.

No changes have been proposed in the present two-platoon system.

Oft-Beaten Wolverines Take On Iowa Tonight

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's oft-beaten basketball team makes another try tonight, against the Iowa Hawkeyes who previously defeated the Wolverines 85-77.

Both Michigan and Iowa were on the losing end Saturday night, Michigan being outclassed at Northwestern, 84-57, while Iowa was losing 68-61 to Michigan State at East Lansing.

Push Wolves Deeper

The losses left Iowa with a 2-3 mark in Big Ten play and sixth place in the league standings, and

Baltimore Grid Coach On Line

BALTIMORE (AP) — After snapping up $250,000 worth of season tickets to get their town back into the National Football League, Baltimoreans expected to learn today who will coach the newly won club.

The name of Keith Molesworth, former Chicago Bears quarterback and backfield coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers, was most loudly whispered as NFL Commissioner Bert Bell called a press conference for this afternoon.

Also invited to the conference were the owners of the new franchise, who were announced only Sunday.

Three of them — Thomas Mulian, Zanvil Krieger and William F. Hiltgenburg — were directors of the old Baltimore Colts, which were abandoned two years ago by Abe Wartner, then president.

The other two new owners are Bruce Lovie, automobile dealer and thoroughbred racer, and Carol Rosenbloom, clothing manufacturer.

Bell said the five owners will pay $200,000 to the league for operation of the franchise, with payments spread over a ten-year period.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Escanaba hockey fans who were irked at the officiating of Marquette's Fred Brunelle here last week would agree with a Houghton Mining Gazette writer who pens: "The Pioneers . . . didn't like the officiating of Fred Brunelle, Marquette referee, and they intend to bring up their case before a full league meeting scheduled for the near future."

Among other things, the Pioneers said Brunelle has a mania for calling misconduct penalties . . . There was some pretty serious criticism of Brunelle's work here when the Hawks played Marquette last Wednesday night . . . We've heard many fans say they wished the Northern Michigan League would use neutral officials.

Free throws again played an important part in some of the weekend basketball games in the Upper Peninsula . . . Two teams depended entirely on gift tosses to score their fourth-quarter points Friday night . . . Ishpeming caged 15 free throws, constituting all of the Hematite scoring, in the fourth period while defeating Negaunee 47-39 . . . Bob Sharland racked up 14 free throws and six field goals for 26 points for the winners . . . And all of Marquette's 12 points in the final period, while losing to Ironwood 82-45, were scored from the charity line.

Kingsford's Flivvers indicated they are coming along with defeating Menominee Friday by a 59-58 margin . . . Bob Fraik, who set a new Menominee individual scoring record with 41 points against Kingsford the first time the two teams met this season, was held to a measly three points . . . Marinette, an Escanaba foe Jan. 30, has also been improving steadily . . . The Marines set an all-time team mark by beating Chippewa Falls 85-47 last week.

Ken Radick, Menominee grid coach, was originally slated to work with Howie Stiehm, Marinette football mentor, in the St. Joe-Norway basketball game here Saturday night . . . But with the break in athletic relations between the Menominee and Marinette schools, a substitute was picked up to take Radick's place.

Broncos Lose To Gwinn In Second Half 68-59

GWINN (Special) — For the fourth time this season the Bark River Broncos were unable to hold a first half lead and dropped a 68-59 verdict to the Gwinn Model Towners here Saturday night.

Coach Paul Wiinikainen's Broncos opened fast and looked determined to halt the classy Gwinn quint which had won five of six previous starts. Bark River led 16-13 at the end of the first quarter and 31-30 at halftime.

But it was the same old story for the Broncos who have lost six against two wins this season. They failed to maintain the pace in the third period and Gwinn took advantage of the lapse to climb into a 51-42 lead.

Bark River came back in the final quarter to match Gwinn's 17-point output, but it was too late to close the gap.

Little Barry Mussatto, Gwinn's speedy forward, took scoring honors with 28 points.

Dick Shepherd and Dave Kwarciany paced Bark River with 18 points apiece and Good contributed 14. The Broncos outscored Gwinn from the field, 25 baskets to 24. Twenty-three fouls on Bark River gave Gwinn a chance to win it from the charity line where the Model Towners cashed in on 20 shots.

Mangrum Winner In Crosby Meet

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Slim, trim Lloyd Mangrum, his pockets jingling with a load of fresh dollars, marked up the Bing Crosby 54-hole golf tournament as a personal victory and headed today for new fields to conquer.

The steel-nerved man with the mustache led a powerful array of pros at the finish of the 54-hole pro-amateur event staged annually for charity. His 204, compiled with rounds of 67-66-71, broke his own record of 205 set in 1948.

Mangrum won $2,000. Aided by his amateur partner Mil Wershow of Los Angeles, he picked up an additional $50 for a sixth place tie in the pro-amateur competition. A week ago the Texas-born sharpshooter bagged first-place money of $2,750 in the Los Angeles Open. His earnings for 1953 in two tournaments total $4,800.

Next stop on the circuit is San Diego this week end.

Present National Champion Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., finished second in the pro division with rounds of 69-67-72—208, worth $1,250. Lawson Little, a resident here and former U. S. Open winner, took third money of $1,000 with scores of 70-70-69—209.

Name Maureen Connolly Woman Athlete Of Year

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — "I am very thrilled, gee, that's great news—thanks very much," Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly said today when advised that she had been voted the female "Athlete of the Year" in the annual Associated Press Poll.

It was the second straight year the 18-year-old tennis champion from San Diego, Calif., had been voted the honors in a nation-wide poll of sports writers and sportscasters in the U. S.

Just Finished Win

Maureen, U. S. and Wimbledon champion, had just walked off the courts at Kooyong Stadium after another victory in the Australian Championships when advised of the news.

"I feel honored and privileged," she said, then added she felt lucky.

"Surely there are many other women athletes in America this year who have done better than I."

"There is Florence Chadwick, who swam the Catalina Channel. Then there's Pat McCormick, who won a diving double in the Olympics at Helsinki."

McCormick Second

Maureen didn't know it then, but the women she mentioned finished second third in the poll.

Miss Connolly had 109 first place votes and 384 points, compared

Short-Handed Hawks Lose 5-2 To Defending Champs

HOUGHTON—(Special) — The short-handed Escanaba Hawks matched powerful Portage Lake for two and a half periods here Sunday afternoon before bowing 5-2 in a Northern Michigan League hockey clash played before 1,100 fans.

The Hawks had only two lines to throw at the defending league champions from Portage Lake. And in the third period Portage Lake made use of its three-line strength to snap out of a 2-2 tie and score three times on the tired Hawks.

The loss was the second straight for Escanaba after a pair of on-the-road victories against these same Pioneers and Calumet.

Home Wednesday

The Hawks are slated to return to home ice to take on the Calumet Radars Wednesday night at the fairgrounds rink.

The Pioneers opened scoring midway in the first period when Tony Bukovich beat Ben Artwich in the Escanaba nets after taking a pass from brother Joe.

The first period was fast and clean, with only one penalty called, a holding the puck breach by Hubert Hamilton of the Hawks.

Escanaba rallied with a pair of quick goals in the second period to take a 2-1 lead. Mark Olson took a pass from Buddy Provo to beat Clyde Berryman at 3:40. Less than a minute later Olson passed off to Joe Ricci who scored the second Hawk goal.

Portage Lake drew into a tie with Ken Ruohonen on a double assist from Juntunen and Bernie Ruelle at 13:58.

Breaks Tie

Bernie Ruelle broke the knot at 5:30 of the third period scoring on a pass from Tony Bukovich. And with Hamilton in the box for tripping, the Pioneers scored on their famed power play when Tony took a pass from Mike Bukovich at 6:05. Tony completed his hat trick for the night by scoring Portage Lake's last goal on a pass from Rudy Gemignani at 9:55.

Escanaba played without the services of Len Webster, Canadian speedster who was ill with the flu, Lolly Rose and Burt Petaja.

Ben Artich held the Pioneers in good shape in the Escanaba goal, stopping 40 Portage Lake shots for a full evening's work. Hamilton and Ed Broughton stood out on defense.

In the final period Portage Lake had the puck consistently in Escanaba territory and the Hawks were unable to dig for reserve strength with front-liners on the weary side.

Summary:

Portage Lake—Berryman, M. Bukovich, F. Lowmye, Ruohonen, Hendrickson, Juntunen, T. Bukovich, J. Bukovich, Gemignani, J. Ruelle, E. Ruelle, Shetney, Cooney, Vencato, Hermanson, Escanaba—Hawks—Artwich, Hamilton, Broughton, M. Olson, J. Ricci, Provo, G. Petaja, Schultz, Serbinski, Sinclair, J. Anthony.

Escanaba posted its third win against three defeats with a last-second 57-55 victory over the Gladstone Braves Friday night.

For Coach Walt Schousen's Eagles it will be the first appearance after the Christmas holiday recess. In pre-holiday play Stephenson won two of six starts, beating Peshtigo, Wis., and Negaunee while losing to Lourdes of Marinette, Menominee, St. Norbert and St. Joe of Escanaba.

Drawing starting assignments for Stephenson will be Tom Kakuk and Bob Melchior at forwards, Stan Luczkowski and Jerry Martin at guards and Bud Linderoth at center. Available for reserve action will be Jim Strohl, Jerry Hanson, Bob Piche, Mickey Burke, Vern Johnson and Lenny Morreau.

Perkins Quint Stretches Lead In Central Loop

Top game of the week will send Cooks to Nahma Friday night. Nahma's second-place position will be at stake in the clash as Cooks could move ahead with a victory providing they get by Eben in a home stand Tuesday night.

60 Years of Steady Service

Will Determine American Middleweight Champ

Boxing Tournament Planned

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—New York state and the National Boxing Association, working arm in arm in a new era of co-operation, today will set up a nationally recognized tournament to determine an "American" middleweight champion.

The NBA announced its recommendations yesterday for a five-man tournament with the survivor meeting the winner of a European title bout between Randy Turpin and Charles Humes for the world championship.

Bob Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, said he agreed substantially with the NBA list but wanted to be sure no worthy candidate is overlooked.

Four U. S. Bouts
Christenberry meets today with George Barton, NBA president; Commissioner Abe Greene and John (Ox) Da Grosa to iron out the final details.

The NBA plans calls for four bouts involving Carl (Bobo) Olson of Honolulu, Norman Hayes of Boston, Rocky Castellani of Luzerne, Pa., Ernie Durando of Bayonne, N. J., and Pierre Langlois of France.

Langlois, a Parisian, was included in the "American" tournament because he already has been matched with Castellani at Madison Square Garden Feb. 6.

"If Langlois should beat Castellani he would have to supersede him in the rankings," explained Commissioner Greene.

Already Signed
Two of the four matches already have been announced. Olson fights Hayes at Boston Feb. 7, the day after the Castellani - Langlois match. After the opening matches, the winner of the Castellani-Langlois bout will meet Durando with the survivor facing the Olson-Hayes victor.

The NBA said it would recognize any Turpin-Hayes bout only as a European title match and would not crown any world champion until the American and European champs met. It will allow only a "reasonable" period between matches before forcing action.

There was action in the heavy-weight division where Da Grosa of the Pennsylvania Boxing Commission was asked to produce a contract calling for a return bout between Rocky Marciano and Jersey Joe Walcott within 90 days of their Sept. 23 fight.

New Weight Class
Marciano and Walcott will be asked to clarify their plans for going through with their rematch which promoter Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club hopes to stage at Chicago, April 10.

Boston will get a 15-round "junior" lightweight championship match between Lauro Salas, ex-lightweight king, and Tom Collins of Boston, probably in February. The NBA decided to revive temporarily the old "junior" title idea pending a review of suggested changes in weight classifications.

Attacking the television problem at the roots, the NBA named a nine-man committee to work with Christenberry in contacting TV networks to explain their problems. Government officials also will be asked to pass on proposed legislation to "black out" cities where local boxing shows are running in opposition to the TV bouts.

By Jan. 24 there will be four weekly network TV boxing shows with a fifth, reportedly in the making for Tuesday nights.

Hoosiers Eye 6th Big Ten Cage Win

By TOM BRANAGAS

CHICAGO (AP)—A square-off between the Big Ten's two top scorers drew prime interest as Indiana prepared to make Ohio State its sixth straight conference victim tonight.

The first-place Hoosiers, undefeated in the Big Ten, needed a victory to assure themselves a continued edge on Illinois which offers the Hoosiers their only immediate threat in the title chase.

Big Games Tonight
However, neither Illinois, which plays Northwestern, nor Indiana could afford to look beyond tonight's opponents.

NU's Wildcats, off to a bad start, have beaten Minnesota and Michigan in their last two games and may have found themselves. They've won two and lost two in the conference. Second-place Illinois has won four and lost one.

Ohio State is in a three-way tie for third with Minnesota and Michigan State. Each has won three and lost two.

Buckeyes Dangerous
Lacking the all-around smoothness of the Indiana squad, the Buckeyes nonetheless are dangerous and any home-court advantage will be theirs tonight in the contest at Columbus.

The Bucks' Paul Ebert has averaged 25.2 points a game for five conference clashes this season, second only to the Hoosiers' Don Schlundt, who has averaged 27.2 in the five Indiana wins.

Other conference games tonight have Iowa 2-3 at Michigan 1-6

tion of the 47th annual meeting of college athletic leaders, the council was equipped with the power to punish on the spot—that is, short of suspension or expulsion.

Kentucky Punished
If a Big Ten school is found guilty of flagrant rules violations, for example that school could be placed on probation, have its schedule pulled down under it or treated to some other disciplinary action.

This year Kentucky, long a national cage power, was made to sit out the basketball season and Bradley, another former national champion, was forced to miss the NCAA Tournament because of their roles in the basketball scandals. A Midwestern university was reprimanded for rules violations.

In these cases the council merely recommended punishment and the three institutions involved took their medicine voluntarily, although convention action was necessary to make it stick.

New Power
Henceforth, convention action won't be needed. The council can crack down—short of suspension or expulsion—leave it up to the convention later to review the action. This was the new enforcement power given the NCAA's police arm.

A convicted school still may appeal to the convention and it's possible the NCAA's enforcement muscles may be tested again if a powerful member chooses to fight. Four years ago seven schools won a fight against suspension during the "Sanity Code" era and, for a while, had the NCAA bounced back.

Emeralds Win U. P. Debate Title Third Time In Four Years

Manistique high school debaters, coached by Marvin Frederickson, won the debate championship of the Upper Peninsula at the weekend tournament in Marquette, defeating Ironwood in the finals Saturday morning.

It was the second consecutive championship victory for the Emeralds and their third win in four years.

The victory was won by the Manistique affirmative team, composed of Jon Schuster and Laura Pizzala, who met the Ironwood negative squad in the finals. In the semi-finals the Emerald affirmative team defeated the Crystal Falls negative. Both victories were given the unanimous vote of the three judges.

14th Straight Victory
In Friday's debating the Manistique affirmative squad defeated Iron Mountain and Menominee. The Emerald negative team, composed of Mary Eua Giovannini and Nicholas Babiadellis, beat Bessemer and Gladstone.

The championship win at Marquette was the fourteenth straight victory for Manistique debaters who prior to the final tournament had won eight contests in practice meets in Crystal Falls and Escanaba.

Emerald reserve debaters, who were not eligible to compete at Marquette, won seven out of eight practice debates against Upper Peninsula reserve squads.

"This is the finest debate record achieved by any team I have ever coached," Frederickson said, "and I want to extend my sincere congratulations to them. Their victory is the result of painstaking preparation and long hours of hard practice."

Win Trophy
As a result of their victory Emerald debaters will receive a trophy and a wall plaque for display in the school. The plaque will be presented by the Detroit Free Press which also will give gold wrist watches to individual debaters.

The victory also will enable two seniors on the squad—Laura Pizzala and Nicholas Babiadellis—to participate in a scholarship debate at Ann Arbor in March. Here they will compete against championship senior debaters from various parts of the state.

William Corson, a senior on last year's championship debate team, represented Manistique high school at the Ann Arbor scholarship tournament in 1952.

Airman Gets 6-Year Term For Smuggling Cosmetics To Korea

SEOUL (AP)—A supply clerk who smuggled powder puffs and cosmetics into Korea aboard Air Force transport planes were sentenced yesterday to six years in prison and dishonorably discharged.

The Air Force said Airman 2-C Thomas A. McHutchion, Mt. Clemens, Mich., used part of the proceeds from the black market operations to plank down $2,000 in the U. S. as down payment on an expensive auto.

Betrayed By Puff
McHutchion, 30, a veteran of ten years' service, was caught when a powder puff accidentally fell from a duffel bag and was spotted by an Air Force policeman checking a routine flight from Tokyo.

Investigators checked his 16 duffel bags and suitcases aboard the plane and they found 50 dozen powder puffs, 100 jars of face cream, 3,000 zippers, 400 wrapping cloths, two bolts of blue serge and 200 wool mufflers. The bags were tagged to officers and non-commissioned officer clubs.

Air Force officers said McHutchion told them he had been approached several months ago by Korean black marketeers. He was given money to make purchases in Japan and was paid when the goods were delivered in Yongdunpo, a crowded Seoul suburb.

Wife In Detroit
The Air Force did not indicate how much money or goods was involved. It said McHutchion was the only Air Force person involved.

McHutchion was convicted after a 3½ day trial. He was charged with violation of Air Force regulations dealing with black market operations and using an unauthorized flight order to make trips to Japan to purchase goods.

His wife, Marjorie, lives at 4127 Lenox, Detroit.

The Air Force said McHutchion's sentence was one of the harshest ever handed out by an Air Force court martial in Korea.

The Air Force said McHutchion intended to make the final payment on his auto with the payoff he was to receive from his last shipment, which amounted to $2,500.

Friend Of Slain Girl Threatened

DETROIT (AP)—Slain JoAnn Carol Gillespie's girl companion of the night of her death was under police protection today after receiving a threatening letter.

Skeptical police indicated belief that the letter was written by a crank but nonetheless they took precautions. The girl's home was placed under a guard.

Shannon Sinnott, 17, who went to a movie with JoAnn the night of Jan. 2, got a pencil-printed letter yesterday threatening her life. The letter, postmarked Buffalo, N. Y., at 7 p. m. Wednesday, said "Shannon, try to act smart and you'll get the same thing as JoAnn Gillespie."

Shannon was the last known person to see JoAnn alive. JoAnne, and Shannon were school chums. JoAnn was beaten to death in a sadistic assault after she and Shannon parted on returning home from a movie.

As the exhaustive police inquiry entered its second week, police still sought a positive clue to the killer.

Accidents Kill 8 In Michigan

(By The Associated Press)
Eight Michigan persons were killed in state weekend accidents, five in traffic mishaps.

A Plainwell baby died of suffocation, fire took the life of a 69-year-old Lansing woman, and a Cheboygan County girl was killed when a shotgun discharged accidentally.

Besides fatal accidents in Michigan, four members of a Mt. Morris family died in a car-truck collision at Agnola, Ind.

A seven-year-old girl was killed Sunday at her farm home near Wolverine in Cheboygan County when a shotgun discharged accidentally. The child, Rose Marie Shann, bumped into the gun as it hung in a doorway.

A Plainwell baby suffocated Saturday in the back seat of her parents' car while the parents were shopping in Kalamazoo. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zuscchek left their daughter, six-month-old Carren Marie, asleep on a blanket, and she apparently turned over on her face. The child was dead when they reached home.

Fire that started when a jug of gasoline was spilled Saturday morning in a Lansing home claimed the life of Mrs. Louise Wrzesinski, who was trapped in her bedroom. She died Sunday in Sparrow Hospital at Lansing.

Pelting Methods For Chinchillas Told To Breeders

Demonstrations of pelting methods featured the meeting of the Upper Peninsula branch of the National Chinchilla Breeders Association at a meeting Saturday at the Teamsters Club.

H. S. Hanson of Honor, Mich., demonstrated the open method of pelting and Reuben Clouse, Groos, demonstrated the casing method of pelting the animals.

An informal survey indicated that approximately 100 chinchillas would be pelted by breeders in this area during the winter.

Methods of conditioning and priming pelts also were discussed and the fur farmers cooperative marketing program was explained. Percy Clouse was the chairman of the meeting.

Christopher Campbell, 13, and Michael Stout, 12, both of suburban Dearborn, were returned home from Cincinnati, O., where police ended their runaway adventures Saturday.

The two Boy Scouts, staked with $40 of Michael's savings, four cans of soup and a box of powdered milk, hiked to a Detroit bus terminal Saturday and invested $16.12 in bus tickets.

Senators To Talk Over Patronage With Eisenhower

ran another meeting with Eisenhower.

Taft said on a television program in Washington last night there is too much confusion over who in each state has the final say on political appointments.

The Ohioan added that he and his GOP colleagues in the Senate feel very strongly that they are the ones who should be consulted in most cases. He voiced confidence that Eisenhower would go along with that view.

"Most senators," Taft said, "feel very strongly under the Constitution that the advice and consent of the Senate applies to all appointments that require confirmation. x x x."

No Big Difference

"On national appointments, no senator can claim a right to have the man appointed he recommends. If a man is to be appointed from his state, he may insist on the veto power, so to speak, since the Senate has to confirm the appointment."

Knowland, who spent the week end in New York, told a reporter he believes there are no major differences over patronage handling.

"It's a case of working out the mechanics," he declared. "That has been difficult. Knowland added, because no Republican in the Senate at present ever has served under a Republican president."

The International Red Cross was formed at a convention in Switzerland in 1864 at which 26 governments were represented.

NEW YORK (AP)—Very quietly the stock market declined today with little or no selling pressure evident. The slide extended to around a point at the outside with most changes in the smaller fractions. Gains went to a point.

Definitely lower groups included oils, steels, and rubbers. Other areas were steady to mixed, with downward tendencies always in evidence.

Lower stocks included Southern Railway, Nickel Plate, Standard Oil, N. J., American Smelting, Dome Mines, General Electric, Republic Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, United Aircraft, and Zenith.

Higher prices were paid for international Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, Consolidated Edison, Union Carbide, Pennsylvania Coal & Coke and American Airlines.

Generals Who Became President

It is a strange paradox that American people have always been hesitant about turning the reins of government over to a military man, yet 10 active generals have been elected. Washington was the first. Because of his great record at the First Continental Congress in 1774, he was chosen to lead the Continental Army.

Strife In Senate

House Republicans will caucus Tuesday night to pick the new leader, probably either Rep. Arnell Engstrom of Traverse City or Rep. Wade Van Valkenburg of Kalamazoo.

In the Senate, the leadership already has been chosen but it remains to be seen whether it can control a dissident group of old timers who were upset in a "Young Turk" rebellion.

Observers look for inter-party strife in the Senate.

The Senate will have a helpless minority of eight Democrats out among its 32 members, but in the House, so far, the Democrats have 34 members and the Republicans 66, one short of the necessary two-thirds majority to override Williams' vetoes.

Wednesday's sessions will be organizational. Thursday it is expected that Williams will present his message to the lawmakers, including his request for a $345,000,000 budget for 1953-54.

Reports Of Unrest Grow In Red China

Red militiamen, the paper said. Another guerrilla group in Kwangsi Province reportedly attacked three Red army units of about company (175 men) strength, and disbanded one unit.

Other evidence of Red jitters reported in dispatches from Canton included these:

More than 38,000 dependents of Nationalist government workers living in Kwangtung and Kwangsi Province are being exiled to Northwest China's Kansu, Tsinghai and Sinkiang Provinces. They will work in undeveloped areas.

In November, four Kwangsi Province guerrilla leaders were executed by Red Army firing squads more than a year after their surrender. After long "brainwashing" courses the Reds decided the ex-guerrillas were not good Communist material, said a dispatch from Kweilin.

In the Wanfow District, 80 miles southwest of Canton, 30-year-old Teng Pi-tsai, former superintendent of the Catholic free clinic, was executed in November as "a running dog and accomplice of crime" of so-called U. S. imperialists.

The Catholic church in Wanfow was headed by an American Catholic priest who was expelled some time ago. After he left, 800 Catholic residents were jailed and forced to publicly announce their severance from the church.

The Wah Kiu Yat Po said 42 of the 800 were called back to have their thoughts "re-checked" and 18 were accused of having stubborn, backward ideas. The latter were sentenced to three years at hard labor.

Another prominent figure executed was Lin Yu-shu, former head of the Swatow Chamber of Commerce. He was shot at Chaoyang on Nov. 29 as a counter revolutionary after working on road gangs near Swatow since his arrest in April, 1951.

Dispatches to independent Chinese papers here say 180,000 persons in Fukien Province on the coast of South China have been shot by the Reds in the last three years.

Such figures were viewed with caution here until recent Communist statements indicated they likely were accurate. The Reds have admitted two million persons were "liquidated" since the Reds came to power three years ago.

The committee will be headed by Sen. Saltonstall of Massachusetts. GOP holdovers are Senators Bridges of New Hampshire, Knowland, and Flanders of Vermont.

Sen. Morse of Oregon, who broke with the GOP during the election campaign, has been a Republican member of the armed services committee. He says he will fight to stay on it, but GOP leaders have reserved no place for him. In his new role as an independent, Morse evidently will be moved to minor committees.

Washington was "First in War, First in Peace and First in the Hearts of His Countrymen."

Pontiac Boy, 10, Shot Dead Running Away From Cafe Break-In

PONTIAC (AP)—A 10-year-old boy fleeing the scene of a reported attempt to break into a restaurant was killed here Sunday by police bullets. He was James Douglas Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown, of Pontiac.

When a squad car arrived a figure ran toward an empty lot, ignoring orders to halt and shots fired over his head. Then a bullet hit him in the back. The figure turned out to be that of James Douglas, who died en route to a hospital.
